WHY CHOOSE SAILING FOR YOUR TEAM-BUILDING EVENT?

To develop your team's cohesion as well as the abilities of your staff:
that's our commitment.

Through a friendly sailing competition,
you will see your people surpass themselves
in effort and enthusiastically rebuild your team.

Improving communication

In sailing, communication is the quintessential skill. It's crucial to know what everyone else, and your competition, is doing. It makes your team work better together, collectively taking snap decisions. It requires clear thought and talk. Sailing is the ultimate masterclass in better communication.

Problem-solving and leadership

Between sea and sky, you never know what challenges your team needs to face and what your competition comes up with. You will have to come up with a plan posthaste and solve problems together as they arise, efficiently and safely. This means everyone will need to know their role, and leadership is of the essence.

Building a new team

Sailing is a great ice-breaker for new teams and for new team members. You'll be able to find out where each new team member fits best as it's a perfect activity to identify everyone's strengths and weaknesses. All this in an unusual yet pleasurable environment of friendly competition, building your team and, why not, finding new partners.

Encouraging teamwork

When sailing, everyone has to pull their weight. There's much to be done on a yacht, every job is within reach of everyone's skills, yet still outside their comfort zone. So they'll need encouragement and support, help to overcome weaknesses, and praise for a job well done. Sailing is the perfect activity to focus on working as a unit.

What is Siggy's Cup ?

It's a 4-day GATHERING of COASTAL RACING off the coast of Croatia.

PROGRAM

Here is an overview of the program. The full and detailed program will be sent to each crewmember.
